DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Griffis (US6683432).

Claims 1,3-6: a robot system comprising a robot and an apparatus driven by a servomotor (fig. 4; fig. 2:23, col. 4:55-63, teaches multiple units), the robot system comprising a detecting unit (fig. 2:11/13) detecting an operator's approach to the apparatus including an apparatus which carries out operation in cooperation with the operator's entry to an area (fig. 4); a unit (10) connecting and interrupting power to the motor (col. 8:28-41; col. 11:65-12:11); an emergency unit (fig. 2:12) receiving a notice of an operator's approach to bring the robot system to a stopped state, wherein power supply to the robot and to each specified apparatus is interrupted (col. 5:7-14; col. 4:41-54; col. 1:16-37); and a monitoring unit (fig. 4: 13,41; col. 13:2-4) for each apparatus monitoring a state of the power supply to the motor and canceling the notice (col. 11:55-65). Griffis does not explicitly recite the controller comprising the units the emergency stop and the monitoring unit. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the apparatus taught by Griffis to include the units, the emergency stop and the monitoring unit into a controller in order to control the robot and since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art (see MPEP 2144.04 (6)(c))

Art Unit: 2837

Claim 2: the apparatus includes a robot (col. 1:9-14).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 07/27/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In response to applicant argument that the references fail to teach canceling the notice ~~from~~^{from} the detection unit to the emergency stop unit for the specified apparatus. Griffis teaches the safety circuit has a reset feature (col. 11:55-65).

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
